Medicaid Florida Redetermination

What to Know for Children, Families, and Seniors

Families on Medicaid should make sure that their addresses are up to date with the Department of Children and Families (DCF). This can be done online with the help of the DCF Chat Bot.

Everyone should be prepared by knowing what options are available for health insurance. For example coverage could be through Medicaid, Florida KidCare, or other commercial coverage options. All children are eligible for coverage through Florida KidCare.

DCF is working with Florida KidCare so families only have to fill out one application for both programs. If a household is determined ineligible for Medicaid, DCF will share their application directly with Florida KidCare who will reach out directly to the families.

MEDICAID REDETERMINATION

Be on the look out for a yellow stripe envelope from DCF, or a text or email with instructions on first steps.

Respond timely to any request for information from DCF. If a family or child is determined to no longer be eligible for the Medicaid program, DCF will share their application with Florida KidCare who will reach out within 7 to 10 days.

When Florida KidCare reaches out families should respond right away to learn more about available coverage options.

Medicaid recipients can log into their MyACCESS account to view their redetermination date.
